

SYNOPSIS

Karajan - Mass from St. Peter's Cathedral Vatican 1985

Karajan - Krönungsmesse aus dem Petersdom 1985

On June 29th 1985, an event of singular artistic importance took place. In the presence of Pope John Paul II, Karajan and the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra performed Mozart's Coronation Mass in the Basilica of St. Peter's in Rome. With Kathleen Battle, Trudeliene Schmidt, Gösta Winbergh and Ferruccio Furlanetto, soloists of highest international reputation had been selected to participate. The choir of the Vienna Singverein completed the cast of great performers. Those who were there became witness to a meeting of a truly great Pope with one of the greatest conductors of all times, who - together with a world-class assembly of musicians - created an inspiring atmosphere on that memorable evening in Vatican City. An evening never to forget, even when only watching it on TV.

Year: 1985

Run-Time: 1 x 58 min.

A co-production of Televisa-Messico, Centro Televisio Vaticano and Telemondial

Languages: No linguistic content (ORIGINAL) , German (TEXT CONTENT)

Format: 4:3

» SCREEN ONLINE