

SYNOPSIS

William Tell - From Lucca to Erl

Wilhelm Tell - Von Lucca nach Erl

Gustav Kuhn is an opera obsessive, conductor and general manager of the Tyrolean Festival Erl, which he founded. He is also the head of the Accademia di Montegral which he set up and which is based near Lucca in the Convento dell'Angelo. Up-and-coming, first-class musical talents are individually encouraged here, receiving a well-rounded training. Martin Traxl visited Gustav Kuhn in his creative crucible in Tuscany and his festival hall in Erl and followed the journey taken by Gioacchino Rossini's Guglielmo Tell from the preliminary rehearsals in Lucca to the stage of the Erl Festival Hall. A fascinating glimpse behind the scenes of Gustav Kuhn's festival operation.
