A Heaven for Horses

Ein Paradies für Pferde

Thomas Donnhofer's heaven for pets has turned into a therapeutic center for horses. Veterinarian Bettina Kern, who Thomas is madly in love with, energetically supports him with the project of his dreams. Life gets even better when Bettina finds out about her pregnancy. But fate takes a brutal turn when she suffers a miscarriage and subsequently falls into a deep psychological crisis. She starts doubting the sincerity of Thomas' affection towards her and leaves the farm in a heated argument. To make matters even worse, Donnhofer's future is endangered when a large hotel chain shows interest in buying the farm - under any circumstance.
