Slap in the Face

Die Ohrfeige

Friedrich's day starts out with a slap in his face. His wife Margarete insists he has been unfaithful to her, adding that she knew this from a dream. Unsurprisingly, he lacks concentration during his early-morning tennis game. He misses the ball, fails to return it properly and nearly provokes a traffic accident, causing a shock to the driver - Ferdinand, a high school teacher. Ferdinand is so upset that he vents his anger by making three students fail their exam. Oliver, one of the three unlucky fellows, has had it and decides to run away from home. Incidentally, Oliver is the son of Friedrich and Margarete, whose slap in the face has triggered a whole series of fateful events that eventually make things come to a head...
