

SYNOPSIS

Hansi Hinterseer Open Air 2011

Hansi Hinterseer Open Air 2011

In honor of the Open Air Concerts 10th anniversary, Hansi Hinterseer has put together a special program for his fans and friends of pop music. Offering a perfect blend of top guests and top hits, video projections and a dazzling light show, the Hansi Hinterseer Open Air Concert creates an extraordinary atmosphere. The Open Air Concert 2011 is a guaranteed mood booster, encouraging everyone to join in on the popular hit songs; inspiring one to dream and desire, maybe even insinuating a little flirt whilst singing and dancing to the music.

Together with his musical guests like Andrea Bocelli, Alpentrio Tyrol, The Original Tiroler Echo, Encho Keryazow, Rob Spence, Voigasplattler, Zellberg Buam and the people of Kitzbühl, Hansi Hinterseer has put together a performance for everyone to enjoy and remember in their memories as well as their hearts.

Program:

The concert features old and new songs - as well as songs from the album «Two Hearts», where the native Tyrolean has put together a compilation of upbeat songs, love songs and beautiful ballads. Successfully gaining more international fame day by day, the Tyrolean has chosen a wide range of songs influenced by his Tyrolean musical customs and traditions as well as international influences. «So sehr lieb ich Dich» and «Heut ist ein Tag zum Glücklich sein» are songs inspired by South American rhythms using instruments accompanying traditional folk songs. «Mei Heimat» and «Tirol gibt's nur einmal» full of love for his home and give one a tangible sense of nature.

Year: 2011

Run-Time: 1 x 120 min.

Directed by Fabienne Pinter

ORF and ARD

Available worldwide except for Germany

CONTENT SALES INTERNATIONAL

SYNOPSIS

Languages: German (ORIGINAL)

Format: 16:9 , 16:9 , 16:9

HD

» SCREEN ONLINE

