

SYNOPSIS

A Nobleman's Home is His Castle

Gebt mir mein Schloss zurück

They were the Lords of Czech Republic: The Salms, the Schwarzenbergs or the Waldsteins. That is, until 1945 when they were expropriated. Now they have returned and have taken up the fight to win their property back. The Czech government is «not amused» and has made restitution as difficult as possible for these aristocratic families. The courts have denied most of their claims - the state still holds the reins on these enormous assets in Bohemia. But these families are refusing to give up.
