

SYNOPSIS

Gefilte Fish and Baba Ganush - A Jewish Cooking Show

Gefillte Fisch und Baba Ganusch - Eine jüdische Kochshow

In the Jewish culture, cooking and consumption are intimately related to religion: Dietary laws provide what kind of nourishments may be consumed, when and in which manner. And the tradition holds that Sabbath, the weekly day of rest, as well as most other holidays are celebrated with a feast at home. Join a Jewish family as they cook selected traditional dishes ranging from Gefilte fish, Chrane, Matzo Ball Soup or Cholent to Levantine food as it is prepared in Israel. A culinary approach to a fascinating culture.

Year: 2007

Run-Time: 1 x 37 min.

Directed by Helene Maimann

metafilm for ORF

Available worldwide

Languages: German (ORIGINAL) , English (DUBBED)

Format: 16:9 , 16:9

» SCREEN ONLINE