

SYNOPSIS

Sweet Vienna

Das süße Wien

With the opening of the first cafés in Vienna, the Viennese art of confectionery became increasingly important. As early as the mid-16th century there was, for example, a designated master confectioner in the royal court. Visitors came to Vienna from all over Europe to get to the bottom of the sweet secrets of the world famous Viennese pastries and chocolates. The proverbial «Viennese» pastry clearly evokes the culinary melting pot of what was once the metropolis of the monarchy. And of course the story of «Sweet Vienna» couldn't possibly be told without the great traditional baking names: Demel, Sacher and Altmann are still exporting their pastries all over the world today.

Year: 2013

Run-Time: 1 x 25 min.

Directed by Ernst A. Grandits

Rabenstein Film for ORF

worldwide

Languages: German (ORIGINAL)

Format: 16:9

HD

» SCREEN ONLINE