

SYNOPSIS

Liberation Theology and the Vatican

Das Kreuz mit den Armen - Benedikt XVI. und die Theologie der Befreiung

Jon Sobrino, a priest who lives and teaches in El Salvador has come in for heavy criticism from the Vatican for espousing liberation theology. The Vatican's Congregation of the Faith issued a controversial notification against him, for arguing that a commitment to helping the poor is the key to understanding Christian belief. The Congregation of the Faith accused the Jesuit priest, in two of his published writings, of neglecting the divine nature of Jesus by stressing his human side.
