Northern Lights - The European Union Youth Orchestra with Baiba Skride

Northern Lights - Das European Union Youth Orchestra mit Baiba Skride

About 140 young talents from all 28 European countries met in Grafenegg to represent the EU and its «Diverse Unity». The «European Union Youth Orchestra» not only offers this young musical elite an opportunity to progress in their careers, but it also treats its members to musical delicacies. When the young musicians meet gifted conductors such as Vasily Petrenko and the celebrated violinist Baiba Skride at the Grafenegg Festival, they are guaranteed a musical delight. They can savour Grafenegg's «Northern Lights» Program together, enjoy works from Northern countries and travel from Estonia to Sweden through compositions by the wonderful Arvo Pärt, Jean Sibelius and many more.
