Greece - The Wild Side

Wildes Griechenland

Part I: The View From The Gods

Part II: Surrounded By Blue

Greece is a land of unique contrasts, with wild animals that have disappeared from the rest of Europe, archaic relationships, as befits one of Civilization's sources - and seemingly special powers like Greek Gods!

Part I takes us to isolated places like the Vikos Gorge -Europe's Grand Canyon - where western rock nuthatches make perfect bottle-shaped nests out of the insects they catch! Beneath the Meteora monasteries two male Egyptian vultures fight over the last female; while down below the extraordinary Sheltopusek, a bizarre legless lizard, hunts.

Part II Chameleons on land, cuttlefish in the water: the astonishing colour-changing heroes of the Greek Islands with their startling hunting, mating and reproduction strategies. Add the snakes that spear migrating birds stopping for a drink and a dip, and the valley in Rhodes where butterflies coat the rocks and trees and lizards Hoover them up....
