

SYNOPSIS

Newton - Viktor Frankl - Logotherapy

Newton - Viktor Frankl - wofür es sich zu leben lohnt

Reaching cult status up to this day, particularly among young people, Frankl - Viennese Jew, neurologist and philosopher - survived four Nazi concentration camps. He has made history as a great conciliator. He is renowned world-wide for his famous book "Man's Search for Meaning", which he wrote while being imprisoned in a death camp. The logotherapy which he established is applied everywhere from Japan to the United States.
