

SYNOPSIS

roadKitchen

Paul, a somewhat unusual chef, takes us on a journey aboard his Food-Bike across beautiful Austrian regions to visit forward thinking farmers in their greenhouses, vineyards and fields. They show him how their crops are produced, give him numerous tips and tell him many anecdotes. They harvest, cook and laugh together. Take a peek into the daily life of today's passionate heroes: farmers and volunteers for institutions, initiatives and organizations who work hard for sustainable agriculture.
