

SYNOPSIS

Live is Life - Late Bloomers

Live is Life - Die Spätzünder

Jail sentence or community service? 100 days pushing senior citizens around in their wheelchairs in a retirement home is a 100 times better than life behind bars. Wanted by the cops, kicked out of his own band, Rocco hits bottom. But his seniors haven't forgotten him, and now they want him to form a band with them so that they can win the band contest's 100.000 euro prize and buy their freedom from the hated home director. "Rocco and the Pacemakers" is born, and they're out to rock'n'roll! An extraordinary comedy - so successful that a second part followed.
