

SYNOPSIS

2 Christmas Dogs

2 Weihnachtshunde

When their best friends get married, Max and Katrin wonder whether they themselves would be ready for such a step. At first, the prospects are bleak:

Max not only fails to live up to Katrin's parents' standards but is also constantly on the go to save money for his own restaurant - a surprise he has in store for Katrin on Christmas Eve. Offering nothing but paper-thin excuses, Max brings home, as a new partner to his dog Kurt, the sweet little dog Trixie, who Kurt completely falls for. But then Katrin finds out that Max meets Trixie's attractive owner on secret dates. When Katrin is offered a new job in London, she is about to put her career before her relationship.

For a happy ending to occur under the Christmas tree, help from a second Christmas dog is badly needed.
