

SYNOPSIS

Molly & Mops - 100 Kilos of Love

Molly & Mops - 100 Kilo Liebe

Molly is somewhat rounder than the fashionistas, nutrition junkies and self-appointed judges of all that is beautiful, good and right will ever accept. Nevertheless, she has three main points in her favour - she knows who she wants to be, she knows what she wants to be and she has the energy to succeed. And on top of this, don't forget, she has Mops the dog, who speaks to her. When Molly faces a number of travails - such as being left by her boyfriend for another woman, moving from her small home town to the big city, and winding up stranded and alone in Salzburg after getting conned out of her money - her skill as a pastry chef, her willpower and, of course, Mops ultimately help save the day.

Year: 2005

Run-Time: 1 x 87 min.

Directed by Titus Selge

Written by Peter Hajek and Susanne Freund

A co-production of ORF and ZDF, produced by mungo-film

Languages: German (ORIGINAL) , English (SUB TITLE)

Format: 16:9

» SCREEN ONLINE