

SYNOPSIS

Vitásek - A Comedian's Life

Vitasek?

The life of a cabaret artist isn't easy. One has to sometimes take unappealing and not so lucrative jobs - office parties, for example. Andreas Vitásek doesn't enjoy them at all - they earn him more money but less respect. But what won't he do to help his family get by and, in particular, to please his teenage daughter. He'd rather enjoy some peace out in the countryside than put up with annoying and terminally stressed managers. Then one day the country's largest TV network makes him an offer, to film an amusing series about his life. So what now? It's hard to know what to do. Is this a chance to go down in television history or the beginning of a never-ending disaster? An entertaining pseudo reality-soap that moves between reality and fantasy, comedy and contemplation.

Year: 2010

Run-Time: 8 x 25 min.

Directed by Rupert Henning

Written by Uli Brée and Andreas Vitásek

Gebhardt Productions for ORF

Languages: German (ORIGINAL)

» SCREEN ONLINE