Christmas in Vienna 2011

The traditional advent concert brings also in 2011 a quartet of international singing greats together. Angela Denoke, Liliana Nikiteanu, Ramon Vargas and Paul Armin Edelmann sing Christmas songs from all over the world. Alongside the Vienna Singakademie, St. Florian's Boys' Choir with their soloist, Alois Muehlbacher, will also be taking part this year. They will be accompanied by the ORF Vienna Radio Symphony Orchestra, for the first time under the leadership of Sascha Goetzel. This atmospheric concert will be broadcast from the unique ambience of the Vienna Konzerthaus.

The programme includes Christmas classics such as «Silent Night», and the traditional «Hallelujah Chorus» from Handel's «Messiah». In addition, Christmas medleys and pieces from the various soloists' homelands will also be played and sung.
