

SYNOPSIS

We are the World - World Choir Games 2008

We are the World - Die große Sommernacht der Chöre 2008

About a dozen choirs will present music, lyrics and inclinations of the choral scene from all over the world - from Swedish a cappella to traditional or classical ensembles from Croatia or Italy, from Australian pop-oriented choirs to a children's choir from China. This is an exceptional musical journey not only for your ears but also for your eyes: watch singers in incredible elaborate traditional costumes and musicians playing on long-established priceless instruments as well as breathtaking dance performances by folk dance groups. Let you drag along into this record-breaking choir festival and experience first hand how its slogan «Singing together brings nations together» has become a unifying force for the entire world.
