

SYNOPSIS

Dance on the Spot

Wo der Tanz steht

Austria boasts a very active young dance scene, which has assumed a remarkably independent role within the international world of dance. The Vienna Dance Biennial of 1982 to 1994 contributed a great deal to the importance that dance has acquired in Austria over the years; the Internationale Tanzwochen Wien and the ImPuls Tanz festival, now held for fifteen years, have added further impact to the scene. All these events have fostered the country's role in dance and have attracted new audiences.
