

SYNOPSIS

Golden Sounds - The Vienna Musikverein

Goldene Klänge - Der Wiener Musikverein

Felix Breisachs film offers a guided tour around the magnificent building erected by Theophil Hansen and inaugurated on January 6, 1870. By way of example, the roof of the Musikverein houses the precious archive of the Society of Friends of Music, one of the world's five largest and most important music collections. The importance of the building is highlighted in numerous interviews - with the musicians of the Vienna Philharmonic, for example, who consider the Musikverein their natural home.
