Childhood in Limelight

Kindheit im Rampenlicht

They are world renowned and a symbol of Austria: away from the spotlights, however, the life of the Vienna Boys' Choir is much less glamorous. Everyday life in the choir's boarding school is characterised by strict discipline - the school's timetable includes hours of practice and vocal exercises - and the young boys struggle constantly with bouts of home-sickness, often not seeing their parents for months at a time. This music documentary follows the boys around for a year, looking behind the scenes of their touring and boarding-school life and capturing their very personal stories in intimate pictures.
