

SYNOPSIS

The Flying Dutchman

Der fliegende Holländer

A recording from the Vienna State Opera, Vienna 2003

This opera, which is generally considered to be Richard Wagner's most accessible work, has had an enduring resonance even beyond the circle of die-hard Wagner fans for over 150 years. The spooky legend of the seafarer who is damned to travel the oceans of the world eternally, and a range of musical highlights such as the «Sailor's Song», have ensured that the work has enjoyed lasting, unbroken popularity.

Opera by Richard Wagner

Libretto by Richard Wagner

Orchestra: Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra

Conducted by Seiji Ozawa

Choir: Vienna State Opera Choir

Cast: Franz Grundheber, Matti Salminen, Nina Stemme, Torsten Kerl, Margareta Hintermeier, John Dickie

Directed by Christina Mielitz

Year: 2003

Run-Time: 1 x 135 min.

Directed by Directed for television by Anton Reitzenstein

ORF

Languages: German (ORIGINAL)

Format: 16:9 , 16:9

» SCREEN ONLINE