

SYNOPSIS

The Merry Widow

Die lustige Witwe

Premiered in Vienna in 1905, "The Merry Widow" is now being performed under the direction of Helmut Lohner in the Austrian town of Mörbisch in Burgenland, on the occasion of its 100th anniversary on stage. In comparison with other works of its genre, the «Merry Widow» has been performed the most often; it contains a wealth of cleverly arranged melodic ideas, including: "Da geh ich ins Maxim", the "Vilja" song, "Ja das Studium der Weiber ist schwer" and "Lippen schweigen".
