Manon Lescaut

Manon Lescaut

A recording from the Vienna State Opera, Vienna 2005

«Manon Lescaut» was Giacomo Puccini's first great musical success. The opera was premiered in Turin in 1893 and performed in the German language for the first time in Vienna in 1908. With highly expressive cantilenas, Puccini tells of the fate of Manon, who is driven to a fatal ending by her longing for expansive luxury and true love.
