Champion

Champion

Champion is the ultimate combination of a knowledge quiz show and an action game show for the prime time program. Fitness, skill, knowledge, luck and team spirit are just some of the requirements for the candidates. In every show, a certain number of candidate pairs vie with each other for a place in the final show, where you can win a grand prize. Each team consists of two persons - a man and a woman who must know each other well and be physically fit. The candidates represent certain regions or federal states, which gives this show a distinctive local touch. Each team has its own block of fans in the studio, which provides additional support for their respective team and is crucial for a quiz.
