

SYNOPSIS

Mike is Looking for Happiness

Herr Ostrowski sucht das Glück

Michael Ostrowski is on the search for happiness. With roguish humour and a dash of (self) mockery in his luggage, he meets with people who tell him about their own personal strategies for happiness. Witty, entertaining and a little off the wall, his travels bring him into contact with a wide variety of people and their routes to happiness, for example the worlds of esotericism, sex, gaming and solitude. «Mike is Looking for Happiness» is an entertaining, informative report and one of the most unconventional voyages of discovery into the innermost desires and hopes of mankind.
