Kyselak - The First Graffiti Tagger

Joseph Kyselak - Der erste Graffiti Tagger

For a long time graffiti was considered to be nothing more than street art until it was finally appreciated by the art establishment. Strangely, one of the icons of graffiti artists is a former Viennese court official, Joseph Kyselak. At the beginning of the 19th century Kyselak went travelling and immortalised himself worldwide on all possible surfaces, using a stencil and black oil paint. A film about an eccentric with a penchant for self-reputation.
