

SYNOPSIS

The World of Peter Paul Rubens

Die Welt des Peter Paul Rubens

Marking a climax to the Year of Culture 2004, the Palais des Beaux Arts in Lille, France, pays homage to Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens. The honorary title of «City of Rubens» has been bestowed on Antwerp, where Rubens spent most of his life. The documentary's third locale is Vienna, featuring the newly inaugurated Museum Liechtenstein and the Vienna Museum of Fine Arts (KHM), which boasts collections of Rubens' paintings. These settings and exhibitions serve as a backdrop to portray the life of the artist and diplomat.
