

SYNOPSIS

Canada: Better than America?

Kanada - das bessere Amerika?

Since President Trump changed the image of the USA, Canada, its neighbour to the north, has been trying to present itself as being like America, only better. Canada is considered a reliable partner, manages to get by without any big scandals, and continues to be characterised by the pioneer spirit. A wide land with rich energy resources and a commitment to environmental protection. A classic land of immigrants, where migrants continue to be welcomed and that is considered one of the safest in the world. With a young Prime Minister who has become the darling of the international media. ORF correspondents Hannelore Veit and David Kriegleder travelled from a great Canadian carnival in Calgary in the West via the colourful multi ethnicity of the city of Toronto to milk farmers in Quebec, to find out whether Canadians really are like Americans, only better.
