

SYNOPSIS

Hitler's Arrival - The Reasons for Being Welcomed

In Linz begann's - Der Anschluss 1938 in Oberösterreich

In March 1938, Linz was the backdrop for a historical event. Adolf Hitler completed the annexation of Austria by the German Reich here because of the rapturous reception given to him by the city of his youth. Images of the Anschluss show cheering crowds singing and waving enthusiastically. But many people were also sceptical and cautious. What was March 1938 really like?

Year: 2018

Run-Time: 1 x 45 min.

Directed by Thomas Hackl

Credits (zu wenig Platz!): A co-production by ORF III, Thomas Hackl Film and MinaPictures in association with Austrian Federal Chancellery - Advisory Council for the Commemorative Year 2018, Film Funding Upper Austria, National Fund of the Republic of A

Available worldwide

Languages: German (ORIGINAL)

Format: 16:9

HD

» SCREEN ONLINE