

SYNOPSIS

Forced Labour! - Fighting for Survival

Zwangsarbeit!

On March 7, 1943 young painter Philibert Charrin was deported to the Austrian labour camp St. Marein. Charrin, who is now 86 years old, continues to suffer from these traumatic memories and remembers with horror those years of longing, homesickness and indignity. This touching film examines the fate of Philibert Charrin as well as other survivors and their families who were left to deal with their traumata on their own once they returned home.
