Vaclav Havel - My Prague

Vaclav Havel - Mein Prag

In an exclusive interview, Vaclav Havel describes his relationship with his home town. He talks about his family, his favorite places, forays the city's history and comments on its current development. But also narrates his life and evolution from «number one enemy of the state» to President. He accompanies the viewer through the theatres in which he had memorable performances as an actor, the prisons he was held captive as political rebel and gives exclusive insight into his country estate in Hradecek. Furthermore, Vaclav Havel introduces friends and family-members, as for example Dagmar, his wife, his brother Ivan or Karl Schwarzenberg, his former counselor at the beginning of his presidency, who have known him intimately.
