

SYNOPSIS

Viva la Vulva

Viva la Vulva

As one of the first, the documentary VIVA LA VULVA concerns the physical centre of female sexuality and brings it historically, culturally and politically into focus. Portraying the issue in a genuine, profound way but also with a sense of humour, the film points out the symbol and indicator of the degree of self-determination, as the mystical source of life and as an anarchistic threat of patriarchal orders. From church to psychoanalysis: What is in-between a woman's legs seems inferior to the primacy of the penis. However, VIVA LA VULVA raises hope - towards a turning point of an independent female sexuality and a new sovereign self-definition of womankind. With an occasional wink and an informative verve, we are telling the story of the new self-confidence of the female sex.

Year: 2018

Run-Time: 1 x 52 min.

Directed by Gabriele Schweiger

Written by Gabriele Schweiger

A co-production by ORF, Arte and Nikolaus Geyrhalter Filmproduktion GmbH in association with Vienna Film Fund and Television Fund Austria

Available worldwide except for Germany and France

Languages: German (ORIGINAL) , French (VOICE-OVER)

Format: 16:9

HD

» SCREEN ONLINE