

SYNOPSIS

In One Spirit - The Church of the Poor

In einem Geist - Kirche der Armen

Around 20 years ago the Church of the Philippines decided to become a "Church of the Poor". Since then it has committed itself wholeheartedly to the needy and the sick waging a relentless struggle against injustice and poverty. A group of foreign theology students, eager to experience the Church's work up close, journeys though the country visiting inhabitants of the slums of Manila and children who live in the city's rubbish dumps. This film shows in touching images, how the students cope with rampant poverty and the various extremely demanding situations they have to face during their trip.
