Moscow Power - Between Throne and Altar

Moskauer Mächte

The Russian Orthodox Church is back. After decades of persecution, oppression and paternalism by the Soviet state, the church is experiencing a period of unprecedented growth. Old churches are being renovated and new ones built, while life has returned to monasteries and theological colleges are enjoying a surge in enrolments. In one of his last television interviews before his recent death, the head of the Russian Orthodox Church, Patriarch Alexi II spoke of a «miracle». This film looks at the reasons behind this returning to the church.
