

SYNOPSIS

Handsome Stranger - Beachboys in Kenia

Schöner fremder Mann

"You can earn a lot with the European women", says Gilbert, a professional "beach boy". He finds his customers on the beach and in bars. Every year older women from Europe travel to Kenya to be pampered by young African men for a couple of weeks. For some it is only about sex - but many of the women are actually looking for the love of their lives. This documentary travels to Kenya's dream beaches and meets many mixed couples there who believe they have found the joy of love (and their fortune) in Kenya.
