

SYNOPSIS

The Basic Income Generation

Generation Grundeinkommen

Time has changed. Nowadays there is no space for lone fighters. The young generation tries to fulfill a fundamental Change in social values. Financial benefits are no longer satisfying. Their attitude and point of view is equal to the basic concerns of the 'Christian Social teaching'. They form coalitions with some socio-politically active groups who follow the Christian social doctrine. This documentary tries to portray as well as explain the motives and ethics which determine the life of the «Basic Income Generation». It questions the economic and political concepts of the current lifestyle of the 21st century and makes a comparison between the behaviors of individuals in contrast to their expectation of society.
