

SYNOPSIS

Alpine Beasties - A Year in Mautern's Wildlife Park

Unter Wölfen, Bären und Geiern - Ein Jahr im Wildpark Mautern

The documentary Mautern Animal Park - a Year on the Wild Mountain takes an endearing look behind the scenes of a Styrian Alpine animal park, 1,100 metres above sea level and steeped in tradition. It follows wild animals and their keepers through the year, getting up close to the animals even during the visitor free winter months. When the normally deft wildcats go off their food, yawning, in winter, or raptors Buzzi and Pen «go on the run» to the local open air pool in summer, humour is never far away in this unusual tale of everyday animal and human life.
