The World in an Eggshell

Rund ums Ei

Eggs turn into birds, insects, fish, reptiles or arthropods. Mostly we think of them as a static stage of development on the way to the real action. So this is probably the first nature documentary entirely devoted to the subject. Written and directed by Astrid Miller, maker of «Wild Boar - The Comeback», «The World in an Eggshell» counters decades of neglect, amusingly, movingly and suspensefully revealing this true wonder of creation, in all its ovoid glory.
